LATIN AMERICA

7. Peru/Argentina: The Argentine State Intelligence Service (SIDE) has invited the Peruvian National Intelligence Service (SIN) to join the "CONDOR" group, a cooperative organization of the intelligence services of countries that border Argentina, subject to approval by the other participating services. As a gesture of goodwill, SIN has agreed to a SIDE request to try to locate several Argentine extremists believed to have sought refuge in Peru. But SIN insisted on turning over any captives rather than disposing of them "in the Pacific Ocean" as suggested by SIDE.
